History-Social Science: Culture, Diversity and the Marketplace

January 16, 2020

Presenter: Susan Shepardson

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Location: Orange County Department of Education – Board Room, 200 Kalmus Drive, Costa Mesa CA 92628

As children begin to understand the characteristics of their own identity, they become interested in people who are different from themselves. Examine how children acquire biases and stereotypes of others, and dialogue around the teacher's role in influencing their thinking around the value of diversity. As children's social worlds expand, they also become fascinated with adult roles and occupations with which they are familiar. Explore how children become consumers in the marketplace and start to understand their role in the community economy.

History Social Science: Preschool Citizenship!

February 6, 2020

Presenter: Rochelle Santacruz

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Location: Orange County Department of Education, 3001 Red Hill Ave., Esplanade-Building 5, Suite 108, Costa Mesa CA 92628

An early childhood program is a wonderful setting for learning how to get along with others and for understanding and respecting differences between people. It is also an important setting for learning about oneself as a responsible member of the group. However, these early experiences in beginning "civics" is challenging for young children because it requires that they balance their own desires and goals with those of others. Join as we explore interactive strategies to support children in developing responsible behavior, fairness and respect for others, and conflict resolution. Walk away with ideas to use immediately!

Phonological Awareness: Playing with Sounds!

February 27, 2020

Presenter: Shelia Arnold

Time: 3:30 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

Location: John F. Land Elementary School - Multi-Purpose Room, 15151 Temple Street, Westminster, CA 92683

Phonological awareness for young children is all about playing with sounds! Noticing and being able to manipulate the sounds of spoken language is highly related to later success in reading and spelling, so exposing young children to purposely designed opportunities is a need and opportunity that teachers must not miss. Developmentally appropriate practice for phonological awareness activities include games, songs, riddles, drama, etc. Engage yourself in phonological fun during this time!
